

PHYSICIANS WHO LEFT A MARK

Dr.

Dimo Stoychev Kuyumdzhev

1846 – October 1908 · Razgrad

“Dimo Stoychev Kuyumdzhev was a physician and revolutionary activist of the Bulgarian Revival who graduated from the Imperial Medical School in Istanbul under an assumed name. He took part in the Serbo-Turkish War and the Russo-Turkish War, and afterwards worked as a physician and pharmacist in Bulgaria.”
