

PHYSICIANS WHO LEFT A MARK

Hristo Lekarski

1851 – 5 April 1907 · Kyustendil

“Hristo Lekarski was a freedom fighter from a family of the Bulgarian National Revival, who twice interrupted his medical studies in order to take part in wars of liberation. After the Liberation he made his career as a public figure and long-serving mayor of Kyustendil.”