

PHYSICIANS WHO LEFT A MARK

DV

Dr.

Dr. Konstantin Ivanov Vezenkov

1848 – late 1878 · the town of Krushevo, today the Republic of North Macedonia

“Bulgarian physician and volunteer who took part in the Russo-Turkish War (1877–1878) as a military doctor of the Third Battalion of the Bulgarian Volunteer Corps. He gained renown for his personal intervention in the defence of Shipka on 23 August, when he led wounded men in a bayonet counterattack.”