

PHYSICIANS WHO LEFT A MARK

JB

Dr.

Jonas Basanavičius

23 November 1851 – 16 February 1927 · the village of Ožkabaliai, Lithuania

“A Lithuanian physician who spent about 25 years in Bulgaria, where he worked as a district and county physician and contributed to public health and medical science. After his return to Lithuania he played an important role in the country's national revival.”
